from mandatory disclosure under Exemption 7(A) of the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(7)(A)(1976). In addition, we believe Exemptions 4, 6, 7(B) and (C) of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(4), (b)(6), (b)(7)(B) and (b)(7)(C) are also applicable to these documents, not to mention protections available to the Company under the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. §552(a). Disclosure is also prohibited under 18 U.S.C. §1905. The Confidential Material concerns the conduct of Marcus Clegg's business and is maintained in confidence by the Firm.

Accordingly, pursuant to 17 C.F.R. §200.83 and other applicable laws and regulations, these documents are submitted to the Commission with our request that they will be kept in a non-public file and that only a member of the Commission or its Staff will have access to them. Should the Commission receive any requests for these documents, pursuant to FOIA, or otherwise, the Company requests that it immediately be notified of such request, and be furnished a copy of all written materials pertaining to such requests (including but not limited to the request and any agency determination with respect to such request). We expect that we will be given an opportunity to object to such disclosure and, should the Commission be inclined to grant the request, it is our expectation that, in accordance with normal Commission practice and pursuant to the procedures required by Exec. Order 12,600, 52 Fed. Reg. 23, 781(1987), we will be given ten business days' advance notice of any such decision to enable our client to pursue any remedies that may be available to it. In such event, we request that you telephone the undersigned rather than rely upon the United States mail for such notice. If the Commission is not satisfied that the enclosed materials are exempt from disclosure pursuant to the FOIA, we stand ready to supply further particulars, and request a hearing on the claim of exemption.

The request set forth in the preceding paragraphs also apply to any memoranda, notes, transcripts or other writings of any sort whatsoever which are made by, or at the request of, any employee of the Commission (or any government agency) and which (1) incorporate, include or relate to any of the information described above provided to the Commission (or any other governmental agency); or (2) refer to any conference, meeting, telephone conversation or interview between (a) our client's current or former employees, representatives, agents, auditors or counsel, and (b) employees of the Commission (or any other government agency).

Further, in accordance with Rule 502 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, any inadvertent production of documents that are protected by the attorney-client privilege, attorney work product doctrine or any other applicable privilege or immunity, is not intended to be a waiver of such privileges. Therefore, we respectfully request that, if such an inadvertent production is made, the inadvertently produced documents are not used, and promptly deleted, by the Commission.
